

SMART RESCUE COMMUNICATIONS

The communication agency for businesses and organisations in the fire and disaster prevention, rescue and security sectors

Our mission

Our mission is defined clearly: we help businesses and organisations in the fire and disaster prevention, rescue and security sectors in their communication.

Depending on the situation, we can help you with all your communication needs, whether your project is big or small. Whether you need help with print or online media, want to organise an event or a trade fair presentation, require help in your public relations or would like to develop a new communication and marketing concept, we would be happy to help you in all of these areas.

Our clear competitive advantage is that, due to our team's many years of experience in the fire and rescue service and training, we know the needs of your target groups precisely and how best to address them. We speak the same language, possess a wide range of expertise and are continually expanding our network.

You too can benefit from our services, we look forward to new exciting projects!

We specialise in communication for businesses and organisations in the fire and disaster prevention, rescue, safety and security sectors. We know that the demands in these sectors are high, because only the best quality and reliable products are good enough when it comes to rescuing and protecting lives.

As active firefighters with many years of experience, we know what is required of and the demands placed on emergency services personnel and materials.

As marketing specialists, we know which communication tools you can use to market your product and services and promote your businesses and organisations.

We would be happy to help you in your marketing with our experience and expertise.

Give us a call – not only in case of emergency!

Find out more about our team and our services here in our brochure. We would also be happy to discuss our projects with you in person.

And if we can help you, do not hesitate to give us a call!

Our team has many years of experience of assignments and communications work.

Many businesses, organisations and local authorities have already benefited from working with us.

Please feel free to gain a first impression of our work. We would be happy to discuss our projects with you in person. Simply give us a call!
